DEATH FOLLOWS INJURY.

William L. Smith, a Carpenter, Expires at Emergency Hospital.

William L. Smith, the carpenter at Lang don who fell from a building at Riverdale yesterday and was so seriously injured, as stated in yesterday's Star, died at the Emergency Hospital this morning. The deceased was thirty-six years old. His body was taken in charge by Undertaker Schippert, who reported the death to Capt. Boardman and suggested that an inquest should be held. Capt. Boardman notified State's Attorney Lewin of the man's death, as the accident occurred in Maryland, and an inquest may possibly be held in Prince George's county. Unless this is done Coroner Nevitt will give a certificate of accidental death and deliver the body to relatives. Coroner Nevitt was informed that the man's neck was broken.

ASSAULTS AN OFFICER

JAMES I. CHARLES AND POLICE-MAN McQUADE HAVE A TUSSLE.

The Former Placed Behind the Bars, Six Men Being Required to Hold Him.

Bicycle Policeman McQuade of the first precinct had an exciting experience this morning while attempting to arrest James I. Charles for creating a disturbance at his boarding house, 511 6th street northman from the house was thrown down eral bruises about the body.

Officer McQuade was passing through 6th street about 9 o'clock on his way to court when a little girl ran out from 511 6th street, occupied by Mrs. Mary C. Lee as a boarding house, and asked him to come in, saying a man was creating a disturbance on the third floor of the house. Dismounting from his wheel the policeman entered the house and made his way to the third floor, where he found Charles, who was under the influence of liquor. McQuade quieted him and advised him to go to bed, which he promised to do. On reaching the first floor of the house McQuade heard the man renew the trouble on the third floor by banging on the door. the third floor by banging on the door. Hurrying back to the room he found that Charles had come out into the hallway. He was told that he would have to go to the station house, but he objected to being locked up and resisted arrest to such an extent that it was necessary to use force. It was with considerable effort that the two men, each struggling with the other, reached the stairway. When they did Charles grabbed hold of the railing. The officer, however, managed to break his hold, and for an instant they swayed to-gether and then both plunged down the stairway, rolling over and over as they descended, first one on top and then the other.

When the hallway was reached another struggle ensued until the next flight of steps was reached, Charles fighting every step of the way. The remaining flight of steps on the inside of the house was descended in the same way, both rolling Fight Renewed on the Street.

When the street was reached the policeman tried to persuade Charles to go along quietly, but he paid no attention and made a strong effort to release himself by striking, kicking and trying to bite McQuade. McQuade managed to keep the man from biting him. In the meantime a large crowd had collected and the officer called for assistance from the lookers-on. Charles W. Stay of 416 G street northwest went to his assistance, but after being kicked several times by Charles he decided that his help was of no avail and left the officer to fight it out by himself. Several others responded, and with their aid the man was taken to the Police Court a short distance away, where he was detained until the arrival of the patrol wagon. While awaiting the wagon it was necessary for six policemen to hold the prisoner on the floor.

McQuade was completely exhausted by his experience, and had to leave Charles to the attention of others in the court building. During the struggle the policeman had his clothing injured to such an extent that it was necessary for him to return home and put on other clothing. His trousers were torn almost off of him, as was also his shirt and collar. Charges of assaulting an officer and disorderly conduct were lodged against Charles at the station house. Charles is about twen-ty-eight years of age, and gave his occu-pation as that of a cigar maker. He will have a hearing in the Police Court tomor-

NEW ARMY SOCIETY.

Branch Formed of the Military Order of the Carabao.

Army officers in Washington have perfected the organization of a branch of the Military Order of the Carabao. Gen. Chaffee is to be the head of the organization in the United States, and the membership will include a great many other officers of high rank. The parent order was organized at Manila, and is composed of officers who served in the Philippines during the fighting period. Any officer is eligible who was there prior to July 4, 1902, the date when President Roosevelt declared peace restored in the islands. After the Chinese expedition the officers who composed it were nearly all sent to Manila, and they organized the Military Order of the Dragon, to denote Chinese service. There was some jealousy evinced by those officers who did not get an opportunity to participate in the Chinese campaign, and some of them organized the Carabao So-

PREVENTED A LYNCHING.

Marines Were Ordered Out at Cavite a Few Weeks Ago.

Prompt action on the part of the marine officers averted a lynching in Cavite a few weeks ago. Albert Powell, an ex-policeman, had been stabbed to death in a drinking den the night before by a Filipino who was jealous of Powell's relations with his sweetheart. Another Filipino was an accomplice. Both natives were arrested and the one who did the killing admitted the crime, but stolidly refused to discuss it. When it became known in the American community that Powell's assailants were in jail excitement ran high and the Americans organized for a lynching of the regulation American order. Word of what was going on having reached the officers at marine headquarters the news was immediately communicated to Capt. Couden of the navy, commandant of the navy yard, who promptly ordered all the available men under arms to patrol the town. That action had the desired effect. Quiet was soon restored and the marines were ordered back to their quarters. Cavite were ordered back to their quarters. Cavite was patrolled all night, however, by policemen and constables, but no further disorder occurred. The civil authorities said that if there was another outbreak the marines would be again pressed into
